Kororo Public School

Dear Parents,

Week 1 Term 2, 22 April 2015

Here we go again! The beginning of a new school term. I hope everyone thoroughly enjoyed the delightfully warm autumn weather and some quality family time over the two week break. We always envisage easing into a new term however as with any week in a school these days, the calendar is already packed full of activity! The first whole school occasion for the term will be on Friday 24th April, when as part of the Anzac Centenary program, the school will be holding our ANZAC service at 2pm. Parents and community members are most welcome to join us for this occasion.

ANZAC Day, originally a commemoration of the landing of Australian and New Zealand forces at Gallipoli on the 25th April 1915, has grown to become one of the most important national days in Australia. In addition to recognising the service and sacrifice of all Australians who have served in war or on peacekeeping operations, ANZAC Day has become a part of the core to the identity of Australia itself, a day on which Australians reflect on the Anzac spirit and its place in Australia today. This ANZAC Day, we mark the 100 year anniversary of the Gallipoli landings – and as part of the Anzac Centenary program, the school will be participating in our Coffs Harbour city march.

We would love to see a large contingent of students representing our school on this occasion as the ANZAC Parade marches through the streets of Coffs Harbour. Students are asked to assemble in Park Ave outside the Gym by 8.45am, ready for the 9am start to the march. Students will need to wear full school uniform, including their school hats and will be fully supervised by school staff for the duration of the event. Parents are to collect their children from our school group at the Cenotaph. Hope to see you there. Just a reminder though, that some calendars are incorrectly marking Monday 27th April as a public holiday. This is incorrect. It's school as normal!

Have a wonderful start to the new term.

Sue Mackay
Principal
